

Eskmuthe Community Rowing Club

Code of Conduct – Members

Eskmuthe Rowing Club is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the well-being of all its members, ensuring a positive and enjoyable experience for all.

As an Eskmuther, you are expected to abide by the following code of conduct:

- Members must act in the best interests of the organisation as a whole – considering what is best for the organisation and avoiding bringing it into disrepute.
- Members must interact considerately and respectfully with each other – respecting diversity, different roles and boundaries, and avoiding giving offence.
- Members must take responsibility in ensuring they are up to date with relevant rules and regulations, understand and adhere to them, and follow all directions from the cox.
- Bullying of any sort will not be tolerated. Encourage everyone to enjoy sport and understand that people have different motivations for taking part.
- Members must pay any fees for rowing or events promptly.
- Members must treat the boats and all other club equipment with respect.
- Any personal information that members have access to must not be shared without explicit consent, or abused in any way.
- Members are always encouraged to be open and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with the Club Captain or Chair.