

ESKMUTHE ROWING CLUB NEWSLETTER: AUGUST 2020

When shall we row again?

With no further guidance from Scottish Coastal Rowing, we are still in limbo. On the positive side, we row outdoors; on the negative side, we cannot socially distance effectively in the boat and it's not going to be easy or pleasant rowing in masks. However, we are making preparations for a return, drawing up specific Health & Safety guidance for when we can row and looking at buying more life-jackets and bringing old ones back into use. In the absence of rowing, here's a silly picture of inflatable-Katie from this week last year.

New office-bearers

The new committee met this week and elected new office-bearers. They are:

CHAIR: Gaynor Allen

CLUB CAPTAIN: Georgina Brown

SECRETARY: Jude Durnan

TREASURER: Pauline Crerar

MEMBERSHIP: David Lee

COMMITTEE MEMBERS: Kari-Ann Johnston, Felicity Cameron, Stewart Page

Wicked Wednesday workouts: Stewart "CrossFit" Page is out-Burpee-ing Joe Wicks with wicked Wednesday workouts. Sign up on TeamApp for 7pm-745pm sessions, on Zoom or at Fisherrow Links, watched by bemused children from the play-park. Well worth £3.

Congrats to Kari-Ann and Ryan: Golden Eskmuthe rowing couple Kari-Ann and Ryan raised more than £1000 for Who Cares Scotland by rowing a mahoosive 21.2km EACH on the rowing machine. And neither of them took a break. Crazy scenes. Read about it here.

Please rejoin: If you haven't rejoined, you should have had an email this week. Please rejoin asap if you can and fill in the membership and Gift Aid forms. If you're concerned about paying, or aren't rejoining, message David (07802 206695) or eskmuthe@gmail.com

RowAround Scotland 2020: Saturday, 15th August, from 1pm We should have been doing our section of RowAround Scotland this month. Instead, it's happening virtually - with a description and pictures of the row (written by George) and a video of club members as possible rowing (on a rowing machine, with 'sea creatures' in the background). We will record this at David and Gaynor's house, 15 Maitland Avenue, from 1pm on Saturday. Sign up on the event on TeamApp. www.rowaround.scot

Swimming, kayaking, cycling, stuff....

In the absence of rowing, we have all filled the void in different ways. If you fancy a swim, a kayak, a cycle, a fire on the beach, whatever, post a chat - someone will join in.

Dates for your diary
